Rocket Model Makes Test Successfully

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States successfully rocketed an unmanned model of its man in space capsule 130 miles high today and recovered it intact from the Atlantic 235 miles down-range.

The shot was an important test in launching an American astronaut on a similar flight planned within a few months. The astronauts training to be first Americans in space all were on hand to see today's shot.

The successful launching capped three disappointing ones that set the program back.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced 50 minutes after launch that a helicopter from the aircraft carrier Valley Forge took the one-ton capsule from the ocean at 11:46 a.m. 31 minutes after it was launched atop an 83-foot Redstone missile.

The capsule was deposited on the carrier flight deck at 12:03 p.m.

The bell-shaped capsule was sighted about 90 miles northeast of Grand Bahama Island shortly after it completed its 16 minute, 4,000 mile-an-hour flight. A fleet of ships, planes and helicopters sped immediately to the scene.

The capsule will be returned to Cape Canaveral for intensive study to determine how well it stood the trip.

A fleet of ships, planes and helicopters was standing by when the capsule was launched.

Dye markers, radio beacons and a flashing light were to help searchers locate the space craft.

The bell-shaped capsule was carried aloft by an 83-foot Redstone rocket that roared away from its missile test center at 11:15 a.m.

It separated neatly from the booster 140 seconds later and raced to its target at speeds up to 4,000 miles an hour. It completed the trip in 16 minutes.

NASA announced:

"Preliminary data indicate that the Project Mercury space-craft apparently flew its pre-planned sub-orbital ballistic trajectory and impacted approximately 235 statute miles down-range. All of the Mercury capsule systems appeared to operate successfully. Recovery ships are now being directed to the impact area."

The government claimed it also was the scene of a rebel massacre. The rebels killed 18 government dignitaries and hostages and wounded 32 others before pulling out, the government said.

Haile Selassie's son, Crown Prince Asfa Wossen, 44, was exonerated from any part in the rebellion. The rebels forced the crown prince and other government leaders to make statements against Haile Selassie, the emperor.

The emperor's bodyguard, 5,000 picked soldiers who formed the nucleus of the rebellion, were tricked by "treacherous leaders of the revolt" into thinking they were fighting for their ruler, the emperor said.

Many rebel leaders were killed, the government said. Those being hunted reportedly included the imperial guard commander, the commissioner of police and the security chief.

Mrs. Ben Haynes died Sunday at her home in Houston, Texas. Survivors include her husband, two children, David and Judy Haynes of Houston; a sister, Mrs. Ralph Holland of Pochamantas, Iowa; two brothers, Fred and Harold Schroeder of Chicago.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Vincent's DePauls Church at Houston. The body will be brought to Hope for burial.

Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday by Father Joseph Enderlin, Herndon - Cornelius is in charge of arrangements.

Three minor accidents were investigated by city police over the weekend. At North Walnut and West Ave B autos driven by Charles Whitley and H. C. Gaines collided with minor damage resulting to both cars. Officers Martin and Fullerton investigated.

Saturday on East Division Sam Cook parked his auto and opened the door. Another car driven by H. G. Adams of Prescott R. 4 hit the door causing considerable damage, according to Officers Martin and Milam.

On Division Street near the depot an auto driven by John Bagley was pulling away from the curb and was hit by another driven by Roland Pearson. There was some damage to both cars.

Arkansas Gets Death Sentence

LAKE BUTLER, Fla. (AP)—An Arkansas and three fellow prisoners have been sentenced to death for the slaying of a cellmate.

Circuit Judge George L. Patten imposed the death sentences Saturday after denying motions for a new trial, but defense attorneys said an appeal is planned.

The Arkansas is James Rankin, 27, of Cherry Valley, Mo. and the other three prisoners were convicted Dec. 2 of strangling another prisoner last March 28. The jury did not recommend mercy, making the death penalty mandatory.

Rankin was serving 30 years for robbery at the time of the slaying.

Selassie Has Army Seeking Out Rebels

By HOMER SMITH

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie's loyal army today hunted rebel imperial guards who fled to the mountains after an abortive attempt to overthrow the 66 year old monarch.

Army patrols marched through the streets of Addis Ababa and air force patrol planes dived overhead but the city otherwise was quiet, concerned mainly with burying its dead and tending its wounds. Officials estimated civilian and army casualties at 2,000.

A communique claimed the revolt, which broke out Wednesday while the emperor was visiting Brazil, was "quickly crushed by the Ethiopian army and people."

Swift punishment was promised for others attempting to overthrow the Ethiopian "king of kings."

Haile Selassie flew to Addis Ababa airport Saturday, then drove in a tank to Jubilee Palace. His primary residence, Guentatul Palace, had been a rebel stronghold.

The government claimed it also was the scene of a rebel massacre. The rebels killed 18 government dignitaries and hostages and wounded 32 others before pulling out, the government said.

Haile Selassie's son, Crown Prince Asfa Wossen, 44, was exonerated from any part in the rebellion. The rebels forced the crown prince and other government leaders to make statements against Haile Selassie, the emperor.

Fires Add to Arkansas' Death Toll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven persons were killed in fires during the week ended at midnight Sunday, in which a total of 1 persons died violently.

Traffic accidents claimed five lives, one persons died in a car-train accident, one in a hunting mishap, one in a shooting, one by drowning and one by asphyxiation.

Three Negro children died in a fire in a Pine Bluff house Saturday. They were James Spriggins, 4, and his sisters, Eddie Mae, 3, and Rosemary, 3 months. Their mother, Mrs. Alberta Spriggins, 43, was slightly injured in the fire.

The fire was believed to have started from defective wiring.

Mrs. Carolyn Gail Cantrell, 19, of Bald Knob, died Sunday in a Searcy hospital of burns suffered Saturday when her dress caught fire from a stove in her home.

The car-train accident, an aftermath of a railroad car explosion Saturday at Traskwood near Benton, took the life of 36 year old Dean Wright, a Malvern alderman. The car was struck by a train being derailed over little-used tracks around the explosion scene.

Injured in the mishap were Bill Moore, 33, a newsmen of Malvern station KBOK, Larry Wright, 18, the dead man's nephew, and Bill Collier.

Buck Fogle, 37, a Camden Negro, was shot and killed Saturday in Camden and police arrested Leonard Green, 25, a Negro ex-convict in connection with the slaying.

Green, captured at Gould Sunday, shot Fogle during an argument over money, Sheriff Grover Linebarrier said.

Negro Group Plans L. R. Boycott

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Negro group has called for a boycott of Little Rock stores which discriminate against Negroes.

In a resolution adopted by a standing ovation of about 500 Negroes Sunday, the Greater Little Rock Citizens Committee endorsed a boycott previously announced by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It also endorsed sit-in demonstrations against lunch counter segregation.

The action followed a talk in which Dr. Ralph Abernathy of Montgomery, Ala., an associate of integration leader Martin Luther King, called on Negroes to "hit the system (segregation) where it hurts the most—in the pocket-book."

The meeting was called to raise money to defend Negroes arrested in sit-ins. About $700 was raised.

The meeting was held in a church to which it was shifted after the city denied use of Dugbar Community Center for a meeting dealing with sit-ins.

A Philander Smith College student who has been active in leading Little Rock sit-ins, Frank James, told the group that college students are "willing to sit in, kneel in, pray in, stand in, in other words we mean to stand up for equal rights not only for ourselves but for future generations."

He added, "We do not seek to dissolve the races...we only seek equal rights."

Furniture Store Burns at Rogers

ROGERS, Ark. (AP)—A furniture store was destroyed and two other businesses were damaged in a business district fire here Sunday.

One fireman was injured fighting the flames.

Eddie Dyson, about 45, of Springdale, suffered a fractured pelvis in a fall from the building.

The Linkway Furniture Store, an adjoining office and a drug store were heavily damaged and eight other businesses filled with smoke.

Radio station KAMO was forced to move its broadcasting operation to its Bentonville studio.

Firemen fought the fire for more than three hours before controlling it.

There was no estimate of damage, but Les Williams, the furniture store's business manager, said the establishment was a total loss.

Asks Demos to Fight Open Battles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., invited Democrats today to fight out their battles in the open rather than behind closed caucus doors.

Mansfield said that if, as expected, he becomes the Senate's majority leader he will oppose the holding of frequent party caucuses. These have been suggested by some Democratic liberals.

"Senators can get party conferences if they ask for them," Mansfield said. "But I would much rather we have our fights out in the open instead of behind closed doors, where information is leaked out."

"I want the true story told the first time and not some garbled account of it."

Several lengthy sessions were held behind closed doors. Members said most of the time was taken up by individual speeches and no policy was agreed upon.

J. L. Loe, 50, Dies at Home Near Prescott

Jewell Henry Loe, aged 50, died today at his home on Prescott Route 3.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Faye Loe, a daughter, Ruthella Loe; two brothers, Morris Loe of Prescott and Emmet Loe of Memphis and a sister, Mrs. Edna Daniel of Prescott.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Sweet Home. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius will be in Sweet Home Cemetery.

New Threat From East Germans

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's Communist regime today issued a new ultimatum threatening Allied and German travel to isolated West Berlin.

An editorial in Neues Deutschland, the official Communist party newspaper, declared that unless a new trade pact is signed this month between West and East Germany, all agreements on traffic to Berlin will become invalid on Jan. 1, 1961.

The editorial said the East German government will offer the Western Allies in Berlin a special arrangement for military transports to Berlin. Presumably the Allies would again refuse to deal with the East Germans since they do not recognize the Red regime.

The Red organ said other traffic—the movement of civilians and goods to and from Berlin—remained an open question in the absence of a trade agreement.

The West Germans cancelled their trade agreement with East Germany 10 weeks ago as reprisal for the Communist squeeze on Berlin.

Eastern and Western negotiators have held four meetings in Berlin to discuss a new agreement, but they have deadlocked on whether West Berlin was to be treated as part of the West German republic.

These additional 100 missiles, perhaps including some solid-fuel Pershings, could be based either on land or sea.

U. S. spokesmen at the NATO meeting put great emphasis on the price tag of the program. They said the United States has come on hard times and her allies must shoulder a greater share of the cost of defending Europe.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter led the American delegation at the talks, which ranged over many other topics. But they came to few conclusions as the incoming American administration was not represented.

NATO Secretary-General Paul Henri Spaak said at a closing news conference "this was a transition meeting."

Electoral College Is Making Count

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Electoral College began today making official Sen. John F. Kennedy's election as president.

Ironically, the first four electoral votes reported, from New Hampshire, went to the loser—Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

By tonight after the last of the 50 separate meetings of state electors in their respective capitals, there should be no doubt about the Democratic candidate's title.

But the exact size of his electoral margin—the one that counts, under the Constitution—may remain in doubt even until the final tally, the official tallying of the electoral vote by Congress in joint session Jan. 6.

Hawaii's three electoral votes will be cast both ways, for Kennedy and for Nixon. A partial recount in the newest state, which had been certified as carried by Nixon, put Kennedy 55 votes ahead Saturday. A full recount is expected.

The Hawaii courts may settle the issue before Jan. 6 if not, honor but added "the time is not congressional legal experts said, now" to accept it.

He noted that the president represents the alliance at public functions.

He agreed to serve a second term as vice president, and the Rev. Harrison Johns, a white Baptist minister, was elected president.

Fire Raging Aboard Ship Constellation, Scores Are Injured

NATO Will Wait for New President

By CARL HARTMAN

PARIS (AP)—Ministers of the North Atlantic Alliance are going to wait for the reelection of President-elect John F. Kennedy before deciding on a conditional American offer to equip NATO with a nuclear striking force.

Winding up their annual three-day review Sunday, the foreign, defense and finance ministers of the 15-nation North Atlantic Alliance deferred action on the U.S. proposal until a spring meeting scheduled for May 8-10 in Oslo, Norway.

Some members are pressing for a spring summit conference of Western leaders but this depended on the attitude of the new American president.

President Eisenhower's top aides put forward the blueprint for a force of medium-range ballistic missiles under combined control in an apparent move to induce U. S. allies to forego independent nuclear programs.

There was little immediate sign this maneuver would succeed. France, for one, has made it plain she intends to go ahead with her own atomic striking force.

The offer hinged on several big conditions—approval by Kennedy, agreement by the Allies on how to pay for the force, and changing the McMahon law that now makes it illegal for the United States to put nuclear warheads in foreign hands.

This is the way the proposed plan would work:

Five U. S. nuclear submarines, each armed with 16 Polaris missiles tipped with nuclear warheads, would be placed under joint North Atlantic command providing the Allies bought an additional 100 missiles costing about $1 million each.

These additional 100 missiles, perhaps including some solid-fuel Pershings, could be based either on land or sea.

U. S. spokesmen at the NATO meeting put great emphasis on the price tag of the program. They said the United States has come on hard times and her allies must shoulder a greater share of the cost of defending Europe.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter led the American delegation at the talks, which ranged over many other topics. But they came to few conclusions as the incoming American administration was not represented.

Kennedy and Leaders Meet for Talks

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy meets with the Democratic high command from Congress today and Tuesday for strategy talks on the new administration's legislative program.

With his 10-member Cabinet now selected, Kennedy arranged to spend more time on the new frontiers blueprint for laws and the budget plans he will send to Congress shortly after his inauguration Jan. 20.

For discussion of the program Kennedy called to his ocean-front home Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the vice president-elect; House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas; and Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, slated to succeed Johnson as Senate majority leader in the Democratic-ruled Congress.

In addition to discussion of the new administration's budget plans, Kennedy and the trio from the Capitol will be talking over

Bill Oates Rotary Speaker

The Tuesday luncheon of the Rotary Club was held at the Lee Hotel with 39 members present. Rev. Robertson gave the invocation.

President Bill Oates was program chairman and gave a talk on Christmas.

He discussed the birth of Jesus and gave many reasons why Dec. 25 is observed as the date of his birth.

Prescott Garden Club Have Christmas Party

Mrs. Watson White Jr. and Mrs. H. E. Dorris were assisting hostesses when the Prescott Garden Club held its Christmas party Tuesday in the home of Mrs. L. C. Dill.

Large red bows decorated the front door and clusters of nandina berries, greenery and white pom-pom mums were placed at vantage points in the spacious living room. In the coffee table a green sleigh filled with white carnations red ornaments and greenery was placed beside a pink candle on a pink styrofoam base encircled with silver leaves and pink poinsettias. A red angel topped the piano and a lamp table held a white madonna in a shadow box standing in the center of white styrofoam leaves and gold pine cones.

Mrs. R. T. Murry, president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. John Eagle presented an inspiring Christmas program that was climaxed with a gift exchange.

In the dining room the members were served refreshments from a table spread with a green cloth. Four glowing white tapers cast a soft glow over a white madonna surrounded by white narcissus and greenery.

Fruit cake was served by Miss Carol Scott and Mrs. Murry presided at the silver coffee service.

Euzelian Class Party Held in Purile Home

The suburban home of Mrs. Sid Purile was beautifully decorated in the holiday decor Tuesday for the Christmas party of the Euzelian Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Corbett Hale, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. Gordon Danner, Mrs. Ralph Fore and Miss Frances Thrasher.

Miss Thrasher, class teacher, gave the history of several carols for the devotional. The carols were sung by the group with Mrs. John Piltman at the piano. Mrs. Dalton Stockton won the door prize and Mrs. Purile was awarded the prize for the best decorated year book. Gifts were exchanged from the tree.

Miss Thrasher presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Allen served open faced sandwiches at the dining table, covered with a cutwork cloth with a centerpiece of red candles and greenery.

At the close of the party the 22 members and two guests joined hands and sang the hymn, "Blest Be The Tie."

Mrs. C. B. Scott '37 Contract Club Hostess

The home of Mrs. S. B. Scott was festive with its Yuletide decorations on Tuesday when she entertained the '37 Contract Club at a dessert-bridge. Polled poinsettias decorated several tables and on the mantel red candles in Christmas holders flanked by the Christmas arrangements. For the dessert course the tables were centered with miniature snowmen.

Mrs. Tom Bemis won the high score prize.

Mrs. Al Williams and Mrs. Sax-on Regan were guests. Other members included Mrs. Darrell Marsh, Mrs. J. R. Bemis, Mrs. Mark Justiss and Mrs. Frank

Electoral Vote 303 for Kennedy

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 537 persons who compose the Electoral College met in the 50 states today to cast the presidential vote that really counts.

There is no doubt that the electors will name Democratic John F. Kennedy. But the size of his margin still is uncertain.

An 11th hour partial recount switched Hawaii from the column of Republican Richard M. Nixon to the column of Kennedy by 55 votes. A circuit judge has indicated he now will order a recount of all the state's precincts.

Counting Hawaii's three votes for Kennedy and barring unforeseen defections of some electors—who are only morally bound to support the winner of the popular vote in their states—the count at the end of the day should be:

Kennedy 303
Nixon 220
Sen. Harry T. Byrd, D-Va., 14

At least 29 votes are needed to win.

Byrd was not a candidate, but he now is the choice of Alabama's 11 Democratic electors and all of Mississippi's 8. The 14 ran unpledged on Nov. 8.

Kennedy won the popular vote in the closest presidential race in 7 years. He carried 31 states for a total national margin of about 118,000 votes. Nixon won 2 states. Unpledged electors carried Mis-

Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pemberton had as their Wednesday night guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McRae and Scott.

SS Manager to Resign Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—James Guy Tucker, 66, has announced he will resign as manager of the Little Rock Social Security Administration office Jan. 15.

He will be succeeded by Frederick L. Gray, 34, assistant manager of the Little Rock office from 1955-59, who now is program staff assistant at the Dallas Social Security regional office.

Tucker, who has headed the Little Rock office since 1945, said he is quitting "to make way for a younger man." The government's mandatory retirement age is 70.

Tucker, a former state auditor, has been with Social Security since its inauguration. He is a native of El Dorado.

In its annual journey around the sun, the earth travels a distance of 590 million miles.

he works elsewhere.

Tucker said his last official act will be to issue himself a Social Security card—which he will need if he works elsewhere.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Spreel)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Liberty Bowl Game Won by Penn State

BY RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Rip Engle took a leaf from the book of pro coach Paul Brown in helping his Penn State team whip Oregon 41-12 in the second annual Liberty Bowl game Saturday.

Leading 14-6 with a few minutes left to play in the first half, Engle called the plays from the bench.

The Penn State quarterbacks shuttled in and out of the game with strategy much the same as Brown sends in plays for his Cleveland Browns via a pair of guards.

"I don't like to call the plays," said Engle. "I like to let the boys play it. But there wasn't much yard pass to the Oregon 1. He time and I thought I had the plays for another score."

He did. State scored and left the field leading 21-6. The touchdown loomed even bigger when Oregon tallied the only touchdown of the third period. What could have been a 14-12 game was 21-12. But State scored three times in the final period to complete a rout.

Engle credited his team's second straight Liberty Bowl victory to his superior numbers. He was able to alternate two complete units against the thinner Oregon forces.

Dick Hoak, senior quarterback from Jeannette, Pa., was voted the game's most valuable player. Hoak scored two touchdowns, passed for another and set up the first State TD with a 16 yard pass to the Oregon 1. He also intercepted two passes in the Lion's rousing fourth-quarter finish, each leading to a touchdown.

When Gentry was lowered again Harding said: "You ready to talk?"

Gentry said, stretching his neck. "I don't know anything."

"You was with Three-Fingered Indian George?"

"I just joined up," he said, a bit defiantly.

"Come on," Harding said and they took the rope from Gentry's hands, and he sat up. His neck was bruised and swollen, but he did not look scared. "Maybe about three minutes up there would change your mind," said Harding.

Gentry's jaws tightened. "You can hang me, Harding—but that's murder."

Harding slapped him brutally. "You can be defiant but not insolent. Get one thing straight Gentry: You know we make our own laws up here and always have, and I wouldn't hesitate to have you pulled up by the neck and left there all night."

"We were just sitting around a fire," Gentry said truthfully, "when you rode up on us."

Johnson spoke to Bart, "What he didn't say is that they had a couple of running irons in the fire."

"How many in Jones' gang?" asked Harding.

"Maybe 20, maybe 50. I don't know. I just joined up."

Harding said harshly, "Listen, Gentry. Go back to Tascosa and tell Xenophon Jones we've got two of his men in jail at Clarendon—Three-Finger and Indian George—and before the month is out we're going to try them in Clarendon for stealin' cows."

Gentry spat. "Everybody knows there ain't no court in the Panhandle."

Harding grabbed him by the front of his shirt and twisted the man back. "There will be a court. Tell Jones that!"

"There's more outlaws in the Panhandle than ranchers," Gentry said contemptuously. "They won't stand for it."

"You go back and tell Xenophon Jones we're doing it!" Harding said. "Three-Finger and Indian George will hang—legal."

Gentry picked up his hat. "Do I get my horse?"

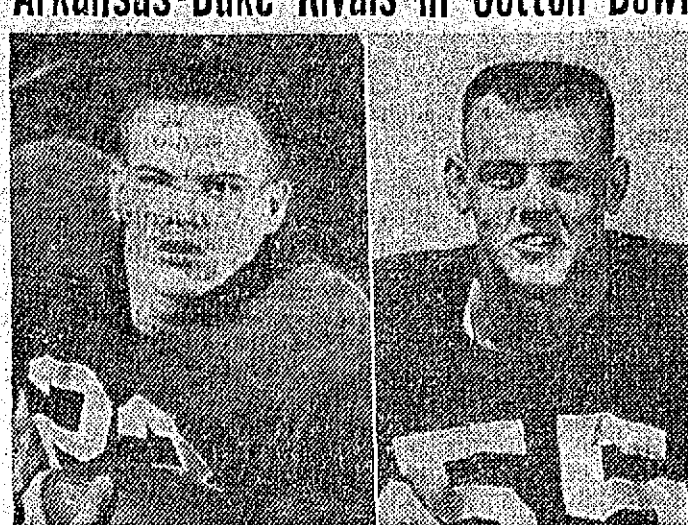

"You get no horse. You were riding a stolen horse when you came in—a Frying Pan brand. The horse goes back to the owner. From here, you walk!"

Gentry glowered at him and started off slowly. Then Stella came up. "Cup of coffee?" she asked.

He glared at her for a moment; then his look became more calculating, and he said, "Yes'm."

Stella was not helping matters any, and it was fairly easy to see that this woman would make any kind of trouble just to stir up excitement.

Arkansas-Duke Rivals In Cotton Bowl

Alworth Harris

Moorman Altman

When Arkansas plays Duke in the 1961 Silver Anniversary Cotton Bowl Classic on Jan. 2 at Dallas, these players will be seen in action. Lance Alworth is the spectacular Arkansas halfback and Wayne Harris is the All-American line-backing center for the Razorbacks. Pass-snatching All-American Tee Moorman is the "honesome end" in the Duke attack and Don Altman runs the Blue Devil offense at quarterback.

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

THE STORY: Driving to Clarendon for supplies, Bart Wagner stops at the LJ ranch to discover Tom Harding and his crew trying to force an outlaw to "talk." The method includes hauling the man up by a rope around his neck until he is half-strangled.

CHAPTER VII
"Old Ben is dead," said Harding.

Johnson stared at him a minute, then looked at Bart. The reaction of these men to the death of Ben Lewis was about that of a man to the news that a coyote had been shot on the Quintafue.

"Let's get back to the hanging," said Harding.

Johnson turned. "Haul him up again!"

The two hands pulled on the rope, hauled the fellow to his feet, and dangled him in the air.

"I take it you caught him with the goods on," said Bart.

Harding nodded grimly. "Hell! talk or we'll find out why. I want him to testify against the others."

The rope must have been tight around the man's neck for he breathed noisily as he lay on the ground. Harding looked at him coldly. "Name of Hicks Gentry. Runs with Xenophon Jones."

Bart looked over the crew. Then a shadow fell across his vest and a throaty girl's voice said "Coffee, mister!"

Bart looked up and stared. She was some different from Catherine—about the same age or a little older, with her hair fixed up like women in a town like San Antonio—piled high on top of her head, with some curls hanging down the back. She was black-haired but her face did not have the smooth brown color that Catherine's had, and he suspected she had put something on her lips.

She was slim, and the way her hair was made her look still more slender. She wore a white blouse and some kind of skirt such as Bart had seen in magazines. Her eyes were dark, and she watched him biddly.

Harding introduced her. "Stella's my only daughter," he said. She had not taken her eyes from Bart's. "I'm glad you stopped for coffee," she said slowly.

"Yes, ma'am. So am I."

He heard Johnson give the order to haul Gentry up again on the rope, but he watched Stella's slim form as she walked among the men with tin cups and a big graniteware pot of coffee.

When Gentry was lowered again Harding said: "You ready to talk?"

Gentry said, stretching his neck. "I don't know anything."

"You was with Three-Fingered Indian George?"

"I just joined up," he said, a bit defiantly.

"Come on," Harding said and they took the rope from Gentry's hands, and he sat up. His neck was bruised and swollen, but he did not look scared. "Maybe about three minutes up there would change your mind," said Harding.

Gentry's jaws tightened. "You can hang me, Harding—but that's murder."

Harding slapped him brutally. "You can be defiant but not insolent. Get one thing straight Gentry: You know we make our own laws up here and always have, and I wouldn't hesitate to have you pulled up by the neck and left there all night."

Green Bay Captures Playoff Prize

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Green Bay Packers, representing the smallest city in the National Football League, today held one of the circuit's biggest prizes after grabbing the elusive Western Conference crown for the first time since 1944.

The Packers ended the struggle for honors in the Western sector Saturday by riding Bart Starr's pinpoint passing to a 35-21 victory over Los Angeles that sends them into the championship game against Philadelphia's Eastern titlists next Monday.

The Green Bay triumph also dethroned Baltimore's two-time champion Colts, brought the Packers' record to 8-4 and completed an amazing flip flop under Coach Vince Lombardi's guidance for the club that finished the 1958 campaign with the worst mark in the league.

The Eagles wound up the season Sunday with a 10-2 record by whipping Washington 38-28 in Mike Nixon's final game as Redskins coach and Cleveland and Detroit earned the right to meet in the NFL's runner-up bowl in Miami, Jan. 7.

The Browns, beaten six consecutive times by New York, came from behind and defeated the Giants 48-34 on a 27-point explosion in the final period that settled the head-on clash for second place in the Eastern Division.

The Lions qualified for the runner-up bowl by thrashing the Chicago Bears 3-0 for their seventh victory in the last nine games while outdistancing San Francisco for the post-season berth on a point basis.

Detroit and the 49ers finished in a tie for second place in the West with 7-5 records when San Francisco knocked off the Colts 34-10 and pushed them into fourth.

St. Louis took fourth place in the East with a 38-7 win over Pittsburgh. In the American League's wind-up program, Western champion Los Angeles edged New York 50-43, Houston's Eastern titlists beat Boston 37-21, Dallas thumped Buffalo 24-7 and Oakland walloped Denver 48-10.

The Packers wrapped up their first title in 16 years when Paul Hornung hit Max McGee with a 40-yard touchdown pass for a 28-7 halftime lead the Rams (4-7-1) were never able to overcome. Hornung also scored once on a short plunge and kicked five conversions, raising his NFL total point record to 17.

Los Angeles took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 40-yard TD loss from Billy Wade to Tom Wilson before the Green Bay onslaught began. Starr heaved scoring aerials of 57 and 91 yards to McGee and Boyd Dowler, respectively, then Paul Winslow recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for another touchdown and Hornung connected with McGee.

Four Teams to Start Aluminum Bowl Playoff

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Southwest Conference entries will come into this week's Aluminum Bowl basketball classic here on winning notes, but the Southeast Conference teams will come fresh from frustrating defeats.

Arkansas and Texas, who represent the Southwest, won final lineup games Saturday night, the Razorbacks beating Centenary 71-61 and Texas whipping Tulsa in overtime, 80-70.

But Alabama and Tennessee, the SEC entries, went down in major tournaments. Alabama losing to Auburn 74-62 in the championship game of the Birmingham classic and Tennessee falling to Colgate 76-73 in the consolation end of the Steel Bowl in Pittsburgh.

Tennessee went into the Steel Bowl 4-0 but lost both games. The Vols and the Crimson Tide are rated high in their league.

Texas and Arkansas are favored in the Southwest, and Arkansas has the best record to date, 4-2. The Hogs are the only SWC team to come through early season play with a better than .500 mark. Texas is 3-3.

Senior Rennie Garner scored 20 points and grabbed 14 rebounds Saturday night in leading Arkansas to its 10-point victory over Centenary. Garner broke a 38-38 tie with 18:08 left in the second half, scoring two field goals that put Arkansas ahead to stay.

The Razorbacks hit 51 per cent of their field goal attempts and four men scored in double figures. Riley Wallace had 17 for the Gents. The Aluminum Bowl originally was a football affair, but was discontinued after one so-so try. Now the sponsors are going into basketball.

The Hogs and Longhorns won't face each other, but coaches and fans will get an opportunity to rate them alongside each other. Texas has height and is favored to repeat as SWC champ. Arkansas has balance and experience and could upset.

Neither will Alabama meet Tennessee, because they clash later in conference warfare.

Five Arkansans All Southern

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Five Arkansas football players, three of them from Little Rock Central High School, have been named to the 41st annual All-Southern squad.

Central, the Big Nine Conference champion, was the only school to place three men on the team. Its honorees were back Claude Fulton, guard Mike Hales and end Bill Knight. Also named to the 80-man squad Saturday were back Chester Storliz of Little Rock Hall and back Ken Hatfield of Helena.

Receiving honorable mention were Leroy McLean, El Dorado back, Ross Honea, Central tackle; Garland Hidenour, Fort Smith back; Gary Shihall of Pine Bluff back; Jim Vervack, Fort Smith back; Jerry Welch, Central tackle; and Bill Grey, Helena back.

Oaklawn Meet Starts Feb. 25

HOOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Oaklawn Jockey Club will pay out purses totaling $740,000 during a 31-day race meeting beginning Feb. 25 at Oaklawn Park.

The meeting ends April 1 with the $25,000-added Arkansas Derby. The total purse money is the same as last year and the club said Saturday the distribution will be the same as in 1959.

About 125 thoroughbreds already are quartered in the Oaklawn stables and more are expected to arrive after the holidays.

The new Hall of Famers, announced Saturday, are Lon Warneke, 51, former professional baseball pitcher and umpire; Paul Runyan, 52, twice a Professional Golfers Association champion; Earl F. Quigley, 69, long-time coach at Little Rock Central High School; Morley Jennings, 70, a former Ouachita Baptist College football and baseball coach, and the late Hugo Bezdek, one-time University of Arkansas football coach who changed the name of the team from Cardinals to Razorbacks.

Bezdek, who died in 1952, piloted the Porks' only unbeaten football team in 1939. During his tenure from 1938-42 he also pioneered spring football and advocated formation of what is now the Southwest Conference. He managed the Pittsburgh Pirates from 1917-19. He also is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

Warneke, a Mount Ida native who now is a Hot Springs businessman, won 192 games for the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals from 1930 to 1945. A right-hander, he won 20 games in each of three seasons, appeared in three all-Star games including the first one in 1933 and won two World Series games, one of them a no-hitter in 1941.

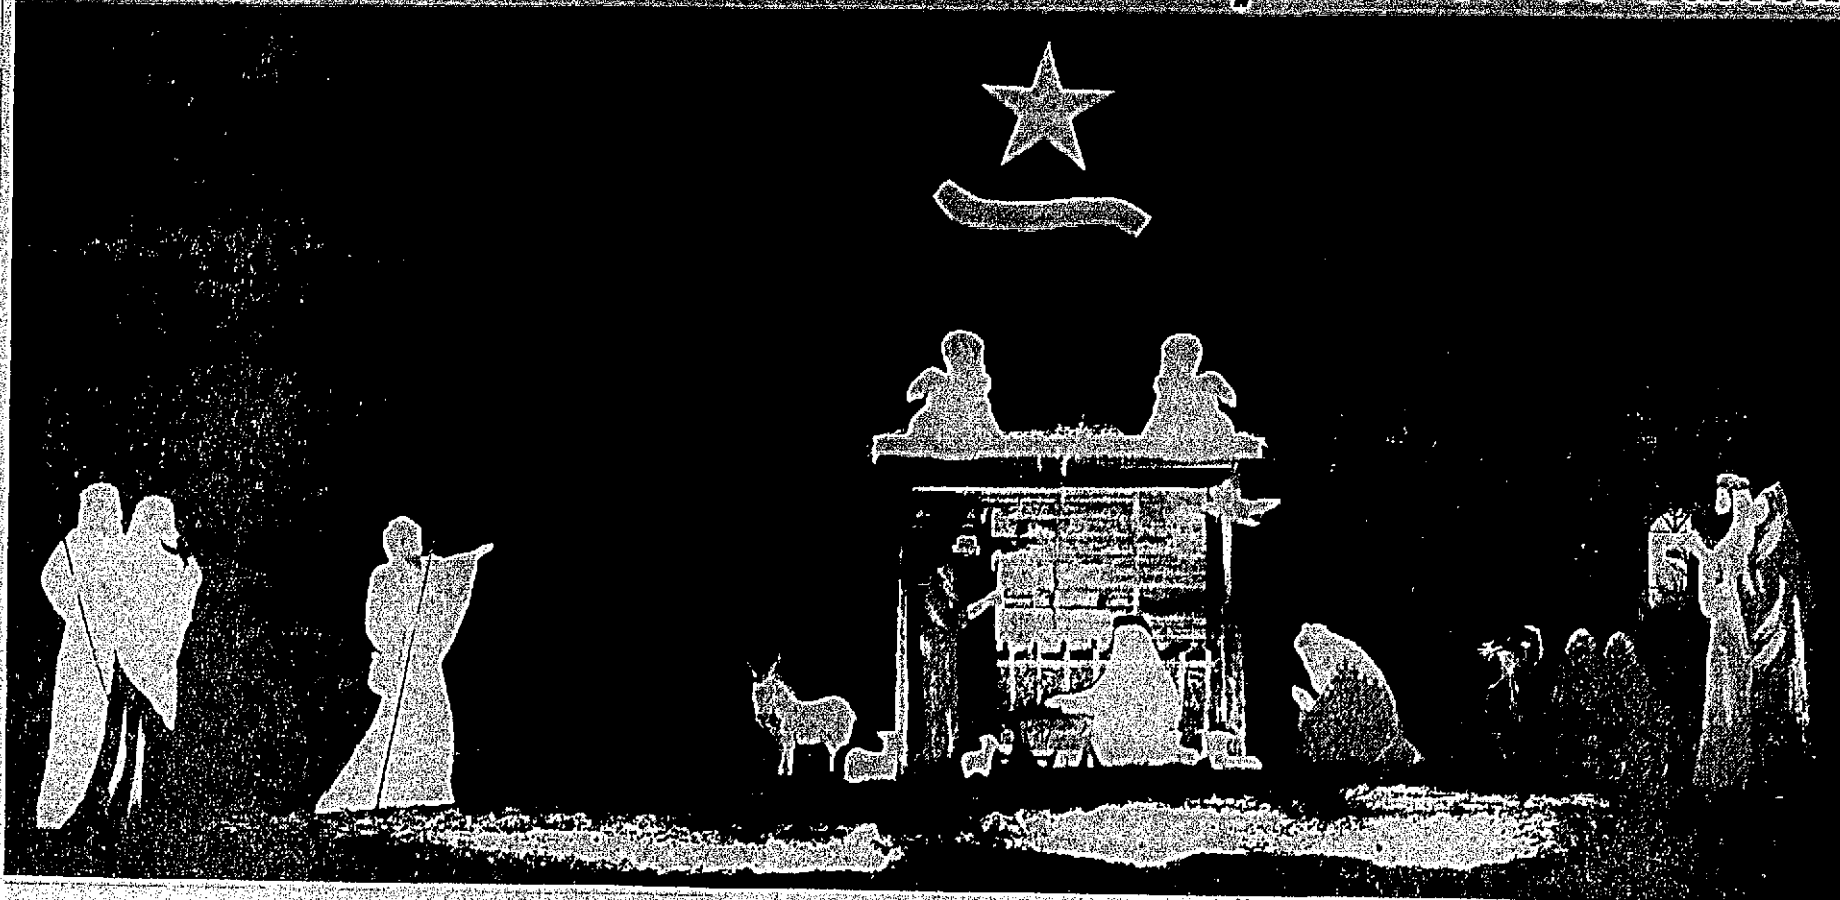

Runyan went from caddy ranks to the pros and was the PGA's leading money winner in 1933-34. He won the PGA title in 1934 and 1938 and five times was a Ryder Cup player. He now is a club pro La Jolla, Calif.

Quigley, Central's coach from 1914 to 1946, retired in 1955 as athletic director, a post he took when he left coaching. His football teams compiled a 207-37 record and captured four state titles. His track squads won 98 out of 100 meets and 18 state crowns.

Jennings, in a 14-year tenure beginning in 1912, had football teams which won 67, lost 13 and tied 12. His Tigers beat the University of Arkansas in two out of six encounters.

Joe Garagiola, former St. Louis catcher, will preside at the third annual Hall of Fame dinner.

Ohio State, Bradley to Be Tested

By JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio State and Bradley, the 1-2 punch in college basketball, will find out this week if they've learned the art of self defense.

The Buckeyes, defending NCAA champions, play Loyola of Chicago tonight and then go for victory No. 6 Thursday night against Detroit (4-1). Ohio State was rated first in last week's Associated Press poll and the Titans were third.

Both were victorious over the weekend, Ohio State winning over tough little Wichita 93-82 and Detroit beating Nebraska 71-62.

Bradley, second ranked, plays Gonzaga tonight, then tries to sell an old score with Missouri Valley for Cincinnati. The Braves have been runnerup to Cincy in the MVC for the past three years — when Oscar Robertson led the Beareats.

Now Robertson is gone and Cincy is just another ball club with a 4-2 mark. Bradley is 6-0 and ran its winning streak over the two seasons to 12 straight with an 88-66 victory Saturday night over Wisconsin.

With the Christmas recess in progress or about to begin in most colleges and universities, the program is just the calm before the tournament storm which will burst forth in every corner of the country next week.

Most of the nation's top teams play only one game this week. Fifth-ranked North Carolina (3-2) meets Creighton; St. Bonaventure (6-0) plays Western Ontario and Duke (5-0) goes against Georgia Tech, tonight.

Fourth-ranked Indiana (4-1) plays Notre Dame Tuesday night while ninth-rated Louisville and 10th-ranked North Carolina State also have a light schedule. The Cardinals, 8-0 after beating Georgetown (Ky) 80-63, Saturday night, take on Louisiana State Wednesday night and the Wolfpack, an 82 to 76 winner over Georgia Tech for a 5-1 mark, plays LaSalle Tuesday night.

Elsewhere, St. John's, ranked 7th with a 4-0 mark, takes on Pitt and Gonzaga this week while Duke (No. 8), pits its 5-0 mark against Georgia Tech and Florida.

Indiana won over Nevada 80-52, North Carolina beat Kansas 78-70.

Rhodes Scholarship to an Arkansan

Moose plans a foreign service career. His father is United States ambassador to the Sudan.

and St. Bonaventure easily handled Morehead 106-88 to make it a clean sweep for the top-ranked clubs.

Auburn labbed itself as the team to beat for the Southeastern Conference crown, beating Alabama 74-62 for the Birmingham Classic title, making its record 5-0 this year, and running its winning streak to 14. Duquesne's 80-66 victory over hometown foe Pitt gave it the Steel Bowl title while Portland beat Gonzaga 73-54 for the City of Roses tournament title at Portland, Ore.

HSTC to Play Texans Here Tonight at 8

By Vince Foster Hope Star Sports Writer

Tonight at 8 p.m. Henderson State Teachers will take on East Texas Baptist College at Jones Field House. This promises to be a good college game, and all Hope basketball fans are urged to come out and see these college players in action.

Henderson Coach Morton Hutto has a very young team this year with no seniors. Thus far in the season they have a conference record of 2 wins, 3 losses. Two of their losses have come in overtime.

Probably starters include Sam Barker of Smackover, Burlin Burroughs of Donaldson, Jimmy Rippo of Caddo Gap, Kenneth Young of Princeton and Gerald Enthrop of Lott, Texas.

Another squad member is G. Lloyd, who is remembered by Hope fans as the all-state boy from Amity. Another familiar player is Sam Barker of Smackover, who scored the most points in our district, 444, last year. Jimmy Rippo has an average of 20 points per game.

The average height of the starters is 6 feet and of the team is 6'1".

"We have a hustling young club and I feel like they will improve a lot during the season," said Coach Hutto of Henderson.
